A Mississippi dorker had a swarm of bees to light on his nose, which he was trying to live them. They stung him to death, and the doctors are solving the probability for the death was caused by the absorption of the virus, or by shock in the blood system. We expect they'll conclude that it was because—Glasgow (N.Y.) Times.

Fond Mother—"John, do look at that child—it has your watch in its mouth, and will swallow it!" John, (who is a bachelor brother-in-law, and very fond of babies), "Oh, don't be the least alarmed, I've got hold of the chain. It can't get far."

Not Price, the prize fighter, who pummeled John and "Au-trailin' Kelly" into a corner, and who has since then lived on a pretty respectable life, and his sign on a prominent street in New York, reads—Edward E. Price, prize fighter at last.

There is no information that Gov. Powers has signed the bill on the subject of conscription. But there is every appearance of a disposition not to do so.—Carrollton Conservative.

Gov. Powers' advocates for the improper use of the word "conscription" have had no excuse but that other governors had done something of the sort. There is no ground for the charge of the use of the word, and it is no justification of the wrong if true.—Conservative.

SPECIAL NOTICE

MARRIED or those about to be Married.

Dr. A. M. Maurician, author of "THE MAR-BLED SPERMATIC URINE MEDICAL COMPANION," of which over a million copies have been dispensed since first published in 1896, has recently again remained at same office as for upwards of twenty years, where his well-known and celebrated remedies, having proved so reliable and efficient for all these years, can be obtained.

To the weakly, sickly, debilitated wife, or mother, or the husband frustrated in his health, manly vigor and energies, or those suffering from indiscretions of youth or premature age, Dr. Maurician especially recommends the use of

as at once recuperating the physical functions, giving health and inspiring energy; it gives the most brilliant coloring to the face, health and vigor, and elasticity and buoyancy of mind and intellect, and banishing low spirits, dyspepsia and all ailments connected therewith.

It has been introduced for upwards of twenty years, and thousands are now enjoying the fullest blessings of health in mental and physical strength and personal beauty, and given those priceless gifts to their children.

It is not intoxicating, there being no alcoholic element entering its composition, thus insuring its safety for every family, without exception. It establishes the health upon a permanent basis.

It gives bright eyes, clear, brilliant complexion, makes new and pure and rich blood in it, besides, most delicious to the palate, like either orange or lemon containing none.

Dr. Maurician does not intend to have "MORAND'S ELIXIR" classed among the countless advertised remedies, as its great intrinsic merit and wonderful recuperative powers, as certified by certificates, are well known. His only object is merely to announce where the full-blown bottles of MORAND'S ELIXIR may be had, and address as for TWENTY YEARS, 720 Liberty street, N. Y., Dr. A. M. MAURICIAN, to whom all orders must be addressed.

ALTHOUGH motion of continuance in open court, supported by affidavits, it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendants, Emma Bell and her husband, John G. Bell, are non-residents of the State of Mississippi, but reside at or near the city of Selma, in the State of Alabama, proceedings ordered by the Court that the said defendants, Emma Bell and her husband, John G. Bell, do enter their appearance herein on or before the first day of the next term of this court, to be held at the court room of said county, in the city of Jackson, on the third Monday of April, A. D. 1872, and plead, answer or demur to the complaint's original and amended bill, or the allegations thereof will be taken as confessed as to them. It is further ordered by the Court that the plaintiff do prove successively in The Clarion, a public newspaper printed and published in the city of Jackson, in said county and State, for three successive weeks. This 15th day of March, A. D. 1872.

LIGHT! LIGHT! LIGHT!!!

The Mississippi Hydro-Carbon Gas Light Company.

ARE now prepared to erect their machines in Hotels, Churches, Public Buildings, Private Houses, throughout the State of Mississippi.

These machines are automatic and furnish a light of 60 candles power at a cost of one cent per hour. They can be furnished with from 1 to 60 lights. They occupy little space—a twenty light machine being about the size of a whisky barrel. They are perfectly safe, and the light both in quantity and quality far exceeds the common coal gas.

They are now on exhibition at the Company's Works in Jackson, former Capital and President's residence, and in Canton, at Wall & Mayers, Merchants' Exchange.

Send for Circulars and you will buy a machine and avoid the dangers and inconveniences of kerosene, alcohol, tallow, &c.

J. GREEN, President.
